“Holiday Closures at The Well and grāz”

Pella, Iowa-On Thursday, December 24th through Saturday Jan 2, The Well will be closed at both the Pella and Knoxville locations. The Well will open back up on Monday, January 4th. This includes The Well Resource Center and The Well Thrift Store. The Well Thrift Store will not be accepting donations during this time.

grāz, a social enterprise of The Well, will be closed December 24 and 25th, but open regular hours the days leading up until December 31, where grāz will close early at 3 PM.

The Well in Pella will not be hosting Celebrate Recovery on Christmas Eve, Thursday, December 24th, but will be hosting Celebrate Recovery on New Year’s Eve, Thursday December 31st beginning with a meal at 5:30 PM. There will be an extended time for fellowship that evening after large group and small group time.

The Well Thrift Store at both the Pella and Knoxville locations will be open Monday, December 21 through Wednesday, December 23rd from 10 AM- 5 PM with all Christmas décor on sale. The Well Resource Center at both the Pella and Knoxville locations will have normal hours on Monday Dec 21st through Wednesday December 23rd.

About The Well -The Well’s mission is combining the love of Christ, the help of our communities and the strength in every person to find hope for life. The Well is an organization of people from area churches, non-profits, businesses and foundations interested in more effectively ministering to those in need in the Knoxville and Pella area. Through volunteers and partnerships with churches and social service agencies, we hope to be a place of encouragement and support that connects people to necessary resources.
