“The Well Thrift Store Opens for Shopping March 17th”

Fairfield, Iowa- The Well Thrift Store in Fairfield will open for shopping beginning Wednesday March 17 at 10 AM until 5 PM. Hours will be Wednesday through Friday, 10 AM-5 PM and Saturdays 10 AM-4 PM. Shoppers can enter under the awning on the side of the building.

The Well Fairfield is located at 1700 South Main Street in Fairfield, Iowa. Donations will be accepted during store hours. During designated donation hours, proceed to the back (west side) of the building and look for signs to drop donations off inside the appropriate donation doors. No donations are to be left outside.

Items that can be donated include gently used clothing, shoes, linens, housewares, home décor, craft supplies, vintage items, books, DVDs, toys, baby gear, sporting goods, tools, working electric appliances, and furniture. Donations not accepted include items that are broken, paints and chemicals, custom window treatments, building materials, pianos and organs, outdated media and TVs.

All items donated to The Well Thrift Store in Fairfield support the ministry to help local people reach long-term stability in life. The Well is looking for volunteers to join in on the mission. If you're interested, please fill out a volunteer application at thewelliowa.org/volunteer.

About The Well -The Well's mission is combining the love of Christ, the help of our communities and the strength in each person to find hope for life. The Well is an organization of people from area churches, non-profits, businesses, and foundations interested in more effectively serving those in need in the Fairfield area. Through volunteers and local partnerships, we hope to be a place of encouragement and support that connects people to necessary resources so people can reach long-term stability in life.
