“Waffles for The Well held August 11-14”

Knoxville, Iowa-On August 11-14th, from 8 AM to 11 AM each day, The Well Knoxville will host a Waffles for The Well event. A suggested donation of $5 includes a fresh, made-to-order waffle with toppings and a drink. Proceeds will fund programming for addiction recovery resources at The Well Knoxville.

“We look forward to partnering with those we serve to help them reach stability and experience freedom from areas of addiction in their lives,” said Larissa Van Donselaar, Director of Resource Center in Knoxville. “When we can help people break unhealthy patterns in their lives, it helps them have energy and clarity to move forward in other areas.”

The Well Knoxville is located at 404 W. Pleasant Street in Knoxville. Enter The Well Resource Center to enjoy waffles and activities. All are welcome.

About The Well -The Well’s mission is combining the love of Jesus, the help of our communities and the strength in every person to find hope for life. The Well is an organization of people from area churches, non-profits, businesses and foundations interested in more effectively ministering to those in need in the Knoxville, Pella and Fairfield area. Through volunteers and partnerships with churches and social service agencies, we hope to be a place of encouragement and support that connects people to necessary resources.
